WHEREAS, in 2023, at the direction of the County Executive, an Early Childhood/Childcare Summit was organized, developed, and sponsored by Anne Arundel County's Economic Development and Workforce Development agencies, Maryland State legislators, the Early Childhood Commission and the County Executive's Office. The summit was attended by over 200 people and addressed issues related to the decreasing supply of childcare in the County; and

WHEREAS, the Anne Arundel Economic Development Corporation has worked to increase the availability of childcare providers through business attraction and retention services such as financing, counseling, workforce training grants and technical assistance; and

WHEREAS, Anne Arundel Workforce Development Corporation is focusing on working with childcare providers to ensure their voices are heard and that they are part of the solutions when considering pay, training, and qualifications; and
